What is the Agency Challenge about?

The Agency Challenge is part of the Northstar Meetings Group Challenge Event Series for agency, corporate and association event buyers. Running for 8 years the challenge event format is proven to create an environment where imagination inspires business and builds partnerships between buyers and event industry suppliers.

The Agency Challenge is a modern business forum that brings together event management agencies, with venues, destinations and specialist suppliers to develop long-lasting relationships.

It is a unique blend of creative team building and effective networking based on engagement through gamification. It is an opportunity for agencies to be inspired by a tantalising array of presentations in an energetic, informative and memorable way. It is the not-to-be missed agency event of the year.

Who attends:

Venues, destinations and event industry suppliers who would like to meet, network and share their product information with event management agency buyers looking to place national and international event business. You will be able to network with up to 65 live agency buyers.
